

Founded in 2005 under the ministry umbrella of Righteous Harvest Christian Fellowship (RHCF) JudahSong is composed of individuals from many different denominations, ages, ethnicities and backgrounds.

We are united in our desire to produce praise to God, not only in song, but in our hearts and lives. Our physical, soulful and spiritual failings are at times both heartbreaking and humorous; yet we delight in knowing that "Christ in us" produces perfected praise through our imperfect vessels.

We rehearse most every Tuesday night at the Matt Talbot Center (a drug and alcohol recovery program in downtown Seattle), and sing there every second Sunday. Feel free to join us any time! More details can be found at www.righteousharvest.org.

Our sincere thanks to District Elder Wilford T, Minister Joann Hairston and the saints of Pentecostal Covenant Church for the use of your facility and your warm hospitality.

And to RHCF ~

Edward & Cora L. Jackson, co-pastors for sponsoring this evening's praise.

CDs and sheet music are available here tonight & from Sonojack Records ~ www.sonojackrecords.com or CDBaby.com
