Join us for “Pacific Northwest GospelFest 2009: A Celebration of African American Heritage”

Seattle Pacific University presents “Pacific Northwest GospelFest 2009: A Celebration of African American Heritage,” featuring a 500-voice mass choir under the direction of honored guests: Pastor Pat Wright, Juan Huey Ray, Pastor Cora L. Jackson, Phyllis Byrdwell, and Pastor Gary Wyatt.

Guest choirs include: Total Experience Gospel Choir, JudahSong, SureHouse, The Sound of the Northwest, University of Washington Gospel Choir, Seattle Pacific University Gospel and Concert Choirs, University Presbyterian Church, Mt. Zion Church, Canyon Hills Community Church, and Antioch Bible Church.

Music Directors Pastor Dave Morgan, Elias Bullock, Carl Kelley, and Professor David Anderson will present as well. Producer and Artistic Director, Dr. Stephen Michael Newby, serves as the director of University Ministries and The Center for Worship and associate professor of music at SPU.

This celebration will be sign language interpreted for the Deaf.

Workshop registration information will be released soon. Tickets and reservations to the concert are not required. A $5 suggested donation plus nonperishable food item for Northwest Harvest will be taken at the door. Doors will open at 6:30 p.m. Free parking is available on campus at Seattle Pacific University.

Co-sponsors of this workshop and concert are McDonald’s Gospelfest and The Seattle Public Library. For more information, contact: www.spl.org or www.spu.edu.
